Galen Award holders

1995
Mrs Tess Ditta
School of Pharmacy
University of London
“A Randomised Controlled Trial of a Pharmacy Discharge Scheme”

1996
Dr Janet Krska/Dr Emily Kennedy
School of Pharmacy
Robert Gordon University
Aberdeen
“Drug Use evaluation of non-prescription medicines”

1997
Mr Joel Hirst
The Welsh School of Pharmacy
University of Wales, Cardiff
“Assessment and monitoring of pharmaceutical needs”

1998
Mr Charles Morecroft
Romiley
Stockport
“An investigation into pharmacists’ beliefs and the influence they have on counter prescribing”

Mrs Jacky Nunney
School of Healthcare Studies
Division of Academic Pharmacy Practice
University of Leeds
“Multicompartment compliance aids in primary care: building an evidence base”

1999
Ms Sara Chait
School of Pharmacy
University of London
“Factors affecting patients’ decisions when beginning courses of antidepressants for the treatment of depression”

2000
Mrs Jacky Nunney
School of Healthcare Studies
Division of Academic Pharmacy Practice
University of Leeds

"Multicompartment compliance aids in primary care: testing an assessment protocol"

2001
Ms Clare Bateson
School of Pharmacy
University of London
"An evidence-based approach to improving medicine management between hospital and community"

2002
Mr Jonathan Silcock
St James' University Hospital (Leeds Teaching Hospitals Trust) & School of Leeds University
"Patients' attitudes towards and beliefs about self-management of chronic congestive heart failure"

2003
Ms Rachel Howard
Nottingham Primary Care Research Partnership
"A qualitative investigation of the underlying causes of drug-related morbidity in primary care resulting in hospitalisation"

2004
Dr Dyfrig Hughes
Centre for the Economics of Health
University of Wales, Bangor
"Investigating factors influencing user choices to visit either general practitioners or community pharmacists in the management of minor ailments – piloting a discrete choice experiment"

2005
Miss Denise Taylor
Department of Pharmacy & Pharmacology
University of Bath
"Patient and carer perspectives of living with antidementia medicines"

2006
Miss Tabassum Jafri
Department of Engineering
Cambridge University
"Improving Medication Safety"

Dr Adam Mackridge
School of Pharmacy and Chemistry
Liverpool John Moores University
"Qualitative Research Methodology Training"

Miss Jasmin Widmann
School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences
University of Manchester
“The perceptions of adolescent and adult kidney transplant patients towards the risks and benefits of drug therapy”

2007
Dr Rhian Jones
Welsh School of Pharmacy
Cardiff University
“An exploratory evaluation of the pharmacist prescriber service within a mental health trust”

Mrs Claire James
Dundee Community Health Partnership
NHS Tayside
“Factors influencing a structured approach to oral nutritional assessment: a qualitative pilot study involving patients and healthcare professionals in a Primary Care setting”

2008
Ms Jane Allen
Chief Pharmacist
Queen Victoria Hospital, East Grinstead
“Optimizing dosage of antibiotics in patients with major burns.”

Miss Lynette James
PhD Student
Kings College London
“Role Conflict: occupational stressors vs. patient safety.
“Effect of workload and pharmacy staff stress on dispensing errors pre and post – automation”.

2009
Mr Stuart Gill-Banham
Clinical Lecturer, Applied Therapeutics (Mental Health and Neuropharamcology)
Medway School of Pharmacy
Research training grant

Mr Samir Vohra
Clinical Lecturer, Community Pharmacy
University of Central Lancashire
Research training grant

2010
Mr Peter Austin
Senior Nutritional Pharmacist, Southampton General Hospital
Bacteriological risk during the ward-pharmacy intravenous nutrition prescribing cycle

2011
Ms Esmita Charani
Senior Lead Pharmacist, Infectious Diseases Dept, Hammersmith Hospital
ADIOS: Antibiotic Dosing in Obesity Study

2012
Mr Peter Austin
Senior Nutritional Pharmacist, Southampton General Hospital
Bacteriological risk during the ward-pharmacy intravenous nutrition prescribing cycle (part II)

2013
Mrs Julie Brooks
Teacher Practitioner Pharmacist
SWBH NHS Trust and Aston University
Pharmacist 'intelligent' referrals to a Liaison Psychiatric team

2014
Ms Esnath Magola
Lecturer in Pharmacy Practice, University of Manchester
The design and feasibility of a peer mentorship intervention to support the transition of newly qualified community pharmacists into independent practice

2015
Ms Elizabeth Miller
Advanced Clinical Pharmacist – Palliative Care, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
What is the community pharmacist's role in providing palliative care services and improving patient care?